

PowerPoint Presentation Evaluation Rubric

D.V. Craig

Performance Criteria	A+ Exceeds Expectations	A 100 – 90	B 89 – 80	C 79 – 70	F Below 69
Organization	All criteria present with quality of overall design beyond the assignment expectations.	Information was presented in a logical, interesting sequence that was easy to follow	Information was somewhat difficult to follow because student tended to "jump around" from topic to topic	There did not appear to be any sequence or order to the information presented.
Design	Every slide contained at least one graphic	All but one slide contained a graphic	2 slides did not contain graphics	More than 2 slides did not contain a graphic	Student did not meet the challenges presented by this task.
	Appropriate use of animation to enhance presentation of material	Used some slide animation as needed.	Overused slide animations to the point of distraction	No slide animations were used during the presentation
Mechanics	All criteria present with quality of overall design beyond the assignment expectations.	Presentation had no misspellings or grammatical errors Presentation contained an introduction, body, and strong conclusion	Presentation contained 1-2 spelling or grammatical errors Presentation contained at least two of the following components: introduction, body, and conclusion	Presentation contained 3 or more spelling or grammatical errors Presentation contained only one of the following components: introduction, body, or conclusion.

Content

All criteria present with quality of overall design beyond the assignment expectations. Example: Scanned graphic files of student work or other artifacts included.

Slide show conveyed the action research findings in a detailed, interesting manner. All components outlined included with adherence to slide limit

Slide show conveyed the action research findings in a detailed manner. All components outlined included, however, too many slides were included.

Slide show conveyed information in a boring, dull manner. Components missing with no attention to slide limit.